

Alex has over 16 years of experience in investment and research, he has extensive experience in various fixed income products including loans trading, securitized products and principal protected notes. Prior to joining Taikang Asset Management, Alex was a Director at GF Global Capital where he managed the private and structured credit portfolio and built the credit research team there. Before GF, Alex covered Chinese and Japanese High Yield and distressed credits at SC Lowy, he assisted the Chief Investment Officer in analysing stressed shipping companies and also managed special situations in China. He worked on a range of equity and debt financing deals during his time at CCBI Asset Management prior to joining SC Lowy. Alex began his career as an auditor with Deloitte New York covering global private equity funds.

Alex graduated with both a Masters and a Bachelor's degree from the University of Notre Dame in the United States majoring in Accounting. He is a CFA, AICPA and Certified ESG Analyst.