

Annie Chan
Head of Investment Due Diligence
DBS Private Bank

Annie has been in the role for 9+ years in DBS Private Bank, covering all investment asset classes including investment funds, bonds, structured products, insurance, for both Private Bank and Consumer Bank. Annie specializes in performing investment due diligence to obtain a thorough understanding of the investment risk vs potential return, to ensure the Bank has the right investment products on shelf. She is a CFA charterholder and a member from the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.