

Gregoire DUREL, CFA
Senior Investment Specialist - Amundi US

Gregoire Durel, CFA is Director and Senior Investment Specialist, sponsoring Amundi US activity across Asia.

Based in Hong Kong, Gregoire is responsible for representing the Amundi US investment philosophy, process, and performance of investment products, and communicating with our clients and their advisors regarding, amongst other, financial market performance, sector trends, and the firm's financial market and economic outlook.

Gregoire was previously a Senior Investment Specialist in the Amundi's Global Fixed Income team for 5 years, based in London. Before that, Gregoire had accumulated 15 years of experience in the fund of funds industry where he was in charge of analyzing, selecting and recommending both long only and absolute return fund investments. He began his career with Amundi in 2003 as a quantitative analyst and then portfolio manager assistant in the Alternative Investment division of Amundi in Paris.

Gregoire is a CFA® Charterholder and holds a post-graduate degree in Risk Management from the ISG of Rennes and has specialized in risk modelling at the ENSAI (French national school of statistics and information analysis).