

Transportation Sector Equity

George Saffaye

Global investment strategist

George is a global investment strategist guiding the messaging and positioning of the Thematic Equity, US Large Cap Growth Equity, US Small Mid Cap Growth Equity and Global Natural Resources strategies.

George joined Newton in September 2021, following the integration of Mellon Investments Corporation's equity and multi-asset capabilities into the Newton Investment Management Group. Before joining Newton, George was a global investment strategist, senior portfolio strategist and investment strategist at Mellon Investments Corporation and The Boston Company Asset Management (both BNY Mellon group companies).

George also worked as a portfolio specialist on the small cap team at Dreyfus, serving as a liaison between small cap portfolio managers and Dreyfus sales and marketing professionals as well as external consultants and clients. Prior to that, he worked at Credit Suisse Asset Management and Warburg Pincus, where his team was responsible for institutional client service and marketing in the Midwest region of the US.

George earned a BBA in Finance and Investments from Bernard Baruch College of the City University of New York.

Joined Newton: 2021

Joined BNY Mellon group of companies: 2000

Joined industry: 1990

Yuan MENG

Investment Specialist

Yuan is an investment specialist and she is responsible for promoting Newton's investment strategies and managing the APAC distribution channels.

Yuan joined Newton in November 2022, prior to joining Newton, she was Institutional Business Development Director at Aegon Asset Management, where she was covering institutional distributions in North Asia. Prior to that, she was Associate Director for Institutional Client Coverage at UBS Asset Management. Before that, she worked at Amundi as senior RFP specialist in institutional marketing team. Yuan began her career as Investment Analyst at TD (Consulting firm of investment and financing) in France.

Yuan holds a BA in Science Education from the Pierre Mendès-France University in France and MSc (first in class) in International Banking and Finance from the University of Le Havre in France.

Joined Newton: 2022

Joined industry: 2012